SUPPLEMENTAL AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF OHIO

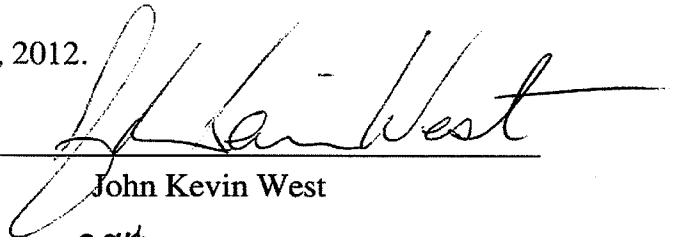

COUNTY OF FRANKLIN

Comes the Affiant, John Kevin West, having been duly sworn, and deposes and states as follows:

1. The inquiries from Daniel Gilbert regarding unpaid royalties presented legal issues, and EQT anticipated that litigation could ensue. Therefore, it was important to have a lawyer coordinate EQT's response to such inquiries. In my view, I was acting primarily in a legal capacity in investigating and formulating EQT's response to Mr. Gilbert.

2. Prior to my communications with Mr. Gilbert, I had been in-house counsel for EQT for royalty litigation against EQT in West Virginia and Kentucky. I believe that my past experience in royalty litigation was one of the reasons that I was assigned to work on the royalty issues that were being raised in Virginia.

DATED this 29th day of August, 2012.
